Gosford All Blacks Rugby

Gosford All Blacks are a family friendly club where the main focus is fun and enjoyment of rugby. They currently run training sessions on Sunday mornings 10am – 12 noon, for boys and girls age 4 – 13 of all abilities. For more information please visit www.gosfordrugby.com or email youth@gosfordrugby.com

Cake Sale

Next week the cake sale will be for Wombats Class. A separate letter will be sent out to parents/carers. However please note we will require 2 adult helpers to set up, sell and pack away. If we do not get any volunteer helpers, unfortunately the sale will be cancelled. All money raised from this sale will go to the class, to buy resources.

KS1 Play Apparatus - Please could we ask parents and carers to not allow your children on the playground apparatus during drop off and pick up times. This is for insurance and health & safety reasons. This apparatus is only allowed to be used when supervised by an authorised member of school or Magpies staff.

Scooters & Cycles

Remember it is school policy, as stated in our school prospectus, that all scooters and cycles must be pushed up the school drive. Please ensure you/your child dismount at the end of the school drive and push your scooter/cycle up the driveway. Thank you.

Celebration Assembly

Penguins

Ethan is working hard, persevering and making progress. James and Lily for being excellent talk partners and helping others learn.

Koalas

Josh worked well in the 'telling the time' project. Maisie gave a great description of a setting.

Wombats

Jack worked really hard and gave a good description of a setting. Holly has done some great work with expanded noun phrases

Tigers

Mikel, Ben and Tristan generated some fantastic ideas for mask designs to show a particular emotion using physical features and colour.
