

Personality Art

Representing Yourself

This week's task is to represent yourself in art form. Think about what makes you... YOU! What are your likes? What are your hobbies? What colours represent your personality? Use drawings and sketches or even collage to represent these things inside your silhouette.

Think about what makes you tick.

Here's some examples for inspiration...

