

Cut out and stick the descriptions and photos on the map provided, correctly matching them to the attraction names.

A former Great Western railway shed, now a comprehensive railway museum.

A museum covering the River Thames, the sport of rowing and the town of Henley-on-Thames.

A historic farmyard where you can feed the animals and explore the manor house and grounds.

The world's first university museum. Originally the home of items donated by Elias Ashmole.

A large, partly ruined Norman medieval castle on the western side of central Oxford.

A museum displaying numerous collections of Oxford University. Founded by Augustus Pitt Rivers.

Exhibits over 260 different species of animals and is the largest privately owned zoo in the UK.

A monumental country house in Woodstock. The only non-royal house to hold the title of palace.

A medieval fortified manor house surrounded by a moat, and located in Broughton.