

This week's spelling activities are based on words ending in 'tial' ('shuhl' sound)

Complete the tasks below.

Add the /shuhl/ sound to each root word by following the rule below:

-ce + tial =

- influence
- space
- confidence
- essence
- substance
- sequence
- difference
- preference
- evidence
- prudence

'tial' words in alphabetical order

Now copy these new words ending in 'tial' into the grid above in alphabetical order.

Your spelling list this week consists of 6 of the words you've just created.

There are 4 more words ending in 'tial' which complete the list. They are shown below.

For each of the 4 words, find a definition and use it in a sentence.

martial	Its definition is...
	In a sentence:
partial	Its definition is...
	In a sentence:
potential	Its definition is...
	In a sentence:
torrential	Its definition is...
	In a sentence:

Now practise the words in the spelling grid below using look, cover, write, check!

Alternatively, I have set these spellings as a home task on Spelling Shed. Like homework I usually set when we're in school, you need to play 5 games.

Log in and get practising! 😊
